STRONGER. SAFER. SMARTER PAINT.®
AT LAST, A SECRET WORTH SELLING.

The world's only high performance, non-toxic paint didn't happen by accident. Undisclosed sources say it was the brightest minds in the bunker that made it possible to have thousands of bright, durable colors with zero VOCs and zero toxins. Such a paint makes for a healthy bottom line as well. So then, was Mythic® Paint really the secret hidden behind those fences in the desert? Just tell your customers they finally have beauty and safety all in one can. Anything else you can neither confirm nor deny.
