

Who do the worlds leading designers and architects use to make their LEED Certified masterpieces beautiful?

Mythic Paint is the first choice for architects, designers and contractors who demand the highest quality product, in any color for all their covering needs. And with zero-VOCs and zero-toxins Mythic Paint is not only safe for the people who use it, but helps qualify these homes to be the highest LEED® Certified in the country.

Used and loved by David Gottfried, founder of the US Green Building Council, visionary California builder Mike McDonald and many more who are leading the industry with the highest level LEED Certified homes. Because with Mythic Paint you don't have to sacrifice beauty, performance and color choice, for a healthy and safe home. Isn't it time you tried Mythic Paint?
