

"I heard it was discovered deep within a Pharaoh's tomb. Which explains why their paintings are such a big deal."

BEAUTIFUL, DURABLE, AND SAFE?
NO WONDER IT'S STACKED IN PYRAMIDS.

Ancient rulers can be a bit selfish with their beautiful possessions. Yet who can blame them for wanting to journey through eternity without nasty paint fumes filling the sealed tomb air. Nowhere else can one find such lasting beauty and unlimited color choices from a paint with zero VOCs and zero toxins. Was Mythic,® the world's only high performance non-toxic paint, the reason their hieroglyphics remain so stunning? That might be a question only the Sphinx can answer.
